PART II. PROPOSED PROJECT

A. Types of Financial Assistance Requested:

- Taxable Bonds
- Refunding Bonds
- Sales/Use Tax Exemption
- Mortgage Recording Tax Exemption
- Real Property Tax Exemption
- Other (specify): _____

B. Type of Proposed Project (check all that apply and provide requested information):

- New Construction of a Facility
Square footage: _____

Square footage of existing facility: _____
Square footage of addition: _____
- Renovation of Existing Facility
Square footage of area renovated: to be determined
Square footage of existing facility: 56,540
- Acquisition of Land/Building
Acreage/square footage of land: _____
Square footage of building: _____
- Acquisition of Furniture/Machinery/Equipment
List principal items or categories:
construction material, furniture, fixture and equipment, and elevator.
- Other (specify): Existing project that has been in operation since 1980s.

C. Briefly describe the purpose of the proposed Project, the reasons why the Project is necessary to the Applicant and why the Agency's financial assistance is necessary, and the effect the Project will have on the Applicant's business or operations:

The financial assistance will enable the Applicant to preserve the Project as Section 8 "affordable" housing and subject to the same income/rent restrictions through HAP that have been in place since its construction. At the inception of the Project, the Federal Housing Commissioner advised that in order the Project to be feasible, the Applicant could not pay annual taxes and/or payments in lieu thereof to the County of Nassau, the City of Glen Cove's School District and the City of Glen Cove in excess of $25,152 or 4.8% of the gross shelter rents received during the calendar year, whichever is greater. As a result, Nassau County and the City granted 100% exemption from County, City, and School District through Tax Exemption Agreements (the "Agreements"). The Agreements are attached hereto as Schedule I. However, pursuant to the Private Housing Finance law, the Agreements cannot be extended for more than 40 years.

The Project's financial assistance is essential in preserving the Project as Section 8 affordable housing, and it is a critical as long as the Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") is the insurer or holder of the note secured by the mortgage. The initial tax exemptions through the Agreements expire shortly, and the Applicant is in the process of refinancing its current HUD loan. Without the IDA's financial assistance in place, the Applicant cannot refinance the mortgage through HUD, and the Project cannot continue as "affordable" housing.

- D. Is there a likelihood that the proposed Project would not be undertaken by the Applicant but for the granting of the financial assistance by the Agency? (If yes, explain; if no, explain why the Agency should grant the financial assistance with respect to the proposed Project)

YES

NO

The Project has been in operation as residential affordable housing with property tax exemptions in place through the Tax Exemption Agreements. At the inception, the tax exemption was required to obtain financing through HUD as an affordable housing rehabilitation project. The IDA's financial assistance will enable the Applicant to preserve the current Project as "affordable" housings for seniors and families in Glen Cove. Without the benefits, the Applicant may continue to operate as regular rental housings; but the Project cannot continue as "affordable" housing.

- E. If the Applicant is unable to arrange Agency financing or other Agency financial assistance for the Project, what will be the impact on the Applicant and Glen Cove? Would the Applicant proceed with the Project without Agency financing or other Agency financial assistance? Describe.

If the Applicant is unable to arrange Agency assistance for the Project, the Applicant cannot continue the Project as "affordable" housing. Current residents will no longer be able to afford to live at their residences.

- F. Location of Project:

Street Address: 136 Glen Street, Glen Cove, New York

All tenants will continue to occupy their respective units until the lease expires or termination of the employment for the superintendent unit.

Thus, there will not be any additional impact on the existing infrastructure, transportation, fire and police and other government-provided services. However, as the Project consists solely of Section 8 affordable housing residential units, in which the rents are set by HUD, the proposed Project's benefits are essential in enabling the availability of the "affordable" housing to the community.
