

Pamela Donaldson Panzenbeck

Elected Mayor of the City of Glen Cove in 2022 following three terms as a member of the Glen Cove City Council (2014 – 2019). Currently Chairperson of the Glen Cove Community Development Agency, Glen Cove Industrial Development Agency and Glen Cove Local Economic Assistance Corporation. Some of the responsibilities and pleasures that came with the honor of being a councilmember were: Liaison to Glen Cove Youth Board and Senior Center; member of Glen Cove Beautification Commission, as well as the Senior Advisory Board; and member of the Glen Cove BID.

In 2018-2020, was asked to join the Glen Cove Memorial Day Parade Committee and the Seven Year Veteran Monument Refurbishment Plan. In 2021, joined the Glen Cove Rotary Club because she was impressed with their civic minded endeavors of generosity and kindness. As the grandparent of a child with Type 1 Diabetes, Mayor Panzenbeck was happy to be part of the Cooking For a Cure fundraising event. Member of the Ladies Ancient Order of Hibernians and the St. Rocco Rosary Society. In the past, co-chaired twice yearly blood drives, taught religious education, volunteered at SCO Family of Services, and served as a Cub Scout Leader.

Before entering into public service, Mayor Panzenbeck spent 34 years teaching business and computer education to secondary level students in the Levittown Public Schools. Mayor Panzenbeck earned both her Bachelor's and Master's Degree at New York Institute of Technology. Upon retiring as a teacher in 2008, she decided to expand her volunteer activities and community service. In addition to many philanthropic endeavors, she enjoyed 10 years as a member of the Glen Cove Hospital Auxiliary, active parishioner of St. Patrick's church, and St. Rocco Feast Ticket Booth Chairperson.

Mayor Panzenbeck enjoys playing golf with the Glen Cove 9 Holvers, relaxing at Pryibil Beach and planting vegetables in the Community Garden of which she is a charter member. She is married with three grown children and grandparent to five.
