EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR REPORT:

Ann Fangmann, Executive Director, provided the members with her agency update. Highlights as follows:

- Glen Cove Villa LLC: In late 2023, the City of Glen Cove Building Department imposed a temporary stop work order pending confirmation of the depth of the excavation. She reported that on January 8, 2024, the temporary stop work order was lifted. She reminded the board that at the prior (December 2023) meeting, the IDA Board granted a temporary sales tax extension through February 2024 subject to building department receipt of plans, at which point the developer will come before the IDA board to request a long-term extension. The board will revisit this request contingent upon proof of financing commitment letter of approval and/or other methods of financing. In addition, the City Council will also need to make a determination on the extension of the Building permit set to expire in early February, which will factor into the IDA decision. At this time, Ms. Fangmann reported that the PILOT payment is accruing late fees and interest. ~$30K out of $161,499 PILOT payment for 2024 General/2024-25 School tax year is currently overdue. Ms. Fangmann indicated that she would distribute by email to the board members the PILOT schedule approved for this project.
- 50 Glen Realty LLC: Ms. Fangmann informed the members that the past PILOT on 50 Glen Realty LLC has expired and the owner has requested new financial assistance. This request will be processed upon receipt of a new application. The Economic Impact Analysis report will be prepared by a 3rd party consultant upon receipt of the application and fee in order for board evaluation. Once this report is received, a public hearing will be held and the board, as well as affected tax jurisdictions, will be notified of the same.
